

Auto-Cycle Union Limited

You can apply for an Off Road ACU Licence or Trials Registration directly over the Internet.

Do you apply for your TV licence on line? Do you tax your car or motorbike on line? You might even pay your household bills on line. Well now you can renew your ACU licence on line.

Follow the easy steps given below and make your life easier, get yourself racing with a few clicks of your mouse.

Members need to follow this link : <https://members.acu.org.uk>

The following screen will appear

Members Login To login to your personal members area, enter your ACU Member/Licence Number and password below. Member/Licence No <input type="text"/> Enter Password <input type="password"/> Forgotten Password? <input type="button" value="Login >"/>	Members Registration If this is your first time on the ACU Members System you will need to register using the button below. To begin registration you will need your ACU Member/Licence number and be guided through security questions before being able to choose your password. In your members area you will be able to update your personal details, unsubscribe from emails and renew certain ACU issued licences. <input type="button" value="Register Now >"/>
--	--

Auto-Cycle Union Ltd
ACU House, Wood Street, Rugby, Warwickshire, CV21 2YX
Phone: 01788 566 417 between 9am and 5pm or Email: licence@acu.org.uk

Just on the first visit, the 'Register Now' option (on the right hand side) will need to be followed.

On subsequent visit, the information on the left hand side [Member numbers and Password] will be the requirement

Once logged onto the system, two options will be available :

View / Edit My Details enables you to change personal information, and decide which marketing information you wish to receive

View / Edit My Licences enables you to renew your 2011 licences for the 2012 year
As with completing the hand written form, certain criteria need to be fulfilled :

Your Club will give you a unique number to enter, once you have joined that Club

The relevant medical questionnaire will require completion

If an Eye Sight Report, or Medical Report are required, the form will be available to download for completion by the Optician or Doctor.

The appropriate payment will be processed using the Sage Pay Secure Payment system using a debit or credit card

Please note that where an Eye Sight Report, or Medical Report is required, the Licence will not be issued until the information is received by The ACU at Rugby

The Licence Department are contactable on 01788 566417, Monday to Friday 9am till 5pm and via email : licence@acu.org.uk